How it works

- ① We drive traffic to our website and apps and enable customers to quickly and easily order food from local restaurants over the internet.
- ② Once an order is placed by a customer, we will transmit the order to you. You cook the food and deliver it to the customer!

A strong brand with internationally backed experience

Already in 20 countries. More than 56 million meals delivered and over 75,000 restaurant partners around the world trust Delivery Hero.

We will grow your business

We are experts in online marketing.
We'll promote your restaurant online!

No risk for you
No minimum contract term and no cancellation fees.

Get support when you need it
Being an Australian-run company, we believe in customer service. Our restaurant care team will be there for you if you have any enquiries regarding our service.

Direct feedback to your customers
